Conditions of Satisfaction

1. Interpretation

Who is person to be satisfied?

- Third person (architect, engineer)
  - subjective: good faith, honest in fact

- Obligor (person who would have to pay)
  - personal taste, fancy, aesthetics
  - commercial quality, operative fitness
  - subjective: good faith, honest in fact
  - both subjective (honest) +
  - objective (reasonable)

2. Excuse

- bad faith (not honest dissatisfaction)
- unreasonable