

database spotlights

Finding Legal News

Donald E. Pray Law Library - University of Oklahoma College of Law

All of these resources can be accessed from the Law Library web page www.law.ou.edu/library.

BNA's U.S. Law Week: Bureau of National Affairs, Inc. (BNA) is a leading publisher of legal information for professionals in law, tax, business, and government. BNA produces one of the most authoritative sources of developing legal news around the nation, U.S. Law Week. This database summarizes and analyzes the most significant cases and key legislative, regulatory, and pre-decisional developments across all areas of U.S. law. The Supreme Court Today component is a searchable database of Supreme Court opinions, with daily updates, oral argument schedules and summaries, and annual reviews of decisions. Other BNA databases available via the law library are BNA reports in the areas of Antitrust and Trade Regulation, Criminal Law, Family Law, International Trade, Labor and Employment, Mergers and Acquisitions, and Securities Regulation.

LegalTrac: Indexes legal publications, major law reviews, law journals, specialty law and bar association journals, and legal newspapers on Federal and State Cases, Laws and Government Regulations, Legal Practice, and legal subjects such as Taxation and International Law. Coverage is from 1980-present, and links to full-text articles are increasingly available.

LexisNexis Academic Universe: Provides full-text access to a wide range of legal materials, including case law, statutes, and regulations. In addition to full text access to many law reviews and law journals, this databases searches LexisNexis extensive news content. One of the news categories, Legal News, is drawn from more than 200 sources, including newsletters, bulletins, digests, reports, newspapers, and other publications. Medical, business, arts, sports, and international news sources are also available.

Findlaw: A free legal web site with a portal for the public and a portal for legal professionals, Findlaw includes daily legal news and headlines. Look for the "In the News" column on the right side of the home page.

Westlaw and LexisNexis Databases: Many legal news databases are available in both Westlaw and LexisNexis. Access is restricted to law students and faculty. A login password is required.