
1) Reading for April 18: pp. 3-48. Pisani lecture on the allotment of Indian land.

2) For April 20: pp. 49-102. Kershen lecture on legal definitions of guardianship, incompetency, probate fees, trusteeship, and other important terms.

4) For April 27: pp. 146-189.

5) For May 2: pp. 190-226.

6) For May 4. Paper due. PAPER QUESTION: “Who are the winners and who are the losers in this complicated legal story? For justice to have been served, who should have been the winners and losers?” This will be the last day of class; there is no final in this course. Instead of students presenting a precis of their papers, we would like you to come to class prepared to discuss what you have learned in the course about the nature of law, lawlessness, violence, and American history. We will ask each of you for a brief response.
